

Instructions: Read each question and write the letter of the correct choice on the Attestation & Answer sheet. A score of 80% or higher is required to receive credit for this training (8 correct answers).

1. You, as an individual, can face criminal penalties if you violate HIPAA law.
  - a) True
  - b) False
2. If you knowingly disclose identifiable health information to another person for personal gain, your maximum imprisonment time could be
  - a) 1 year
  - b) 5 years
  - c) 10 years
  - d) 15 years
3. The maximum penalty for an organization who violates the HIPAA rules and has multiple identical violations in a year is
  - a) $10,000
  - b) $150,000
  - c) $100,000
  - d) $1,000,000
  - e) $1,500,000
4. You are school psychologist in a state with no defined age of consent. You may release information to the parents without consent of the student, unless the student is 18 years old.
  - a) True
  - b) False
5. You have a patient who is awake and alert. A family member pulls you aside in the hallway and asks what medications he is prescribed. You have seen the family member in the room most of the time the patient has been in the hospital. Are you allowed to give this information to the family member?
  - a) Yes, since they have been in the room with the patient, it is fine to give them information.
  - b) No, information can never be given to family members if the patient is alert and awake.
  - c) Maybe. You may give information only if the patient has given his/her permission for this person to receive information about their condition and treatment.
6. Your spouse works for a local newspaper and has called you to verify that a local celebrity has checked into your hospital for a minor operation. Since your spouse seems to know all the details, it is acceptable for you to confirm the information.
  - a) True
  - b) False
7. Patients do not have a right to see their personal protected health information.
  - a) True
  - b) False
8. Protected Health Information stored electronically requires a password before information can be accessed.
  - a) True
  - b) False
9. Individually identifiable health information is
  - a) A subset of Protected Health Information
  - b) A Health and Human Services HIPAA rule
  - c) Information which can be shared for commercial purposes
10. Protected Health Information is
  - a) Any electronic health information
  - b) Any health information, no matter what the form
  - c) Any information about an individual
  - d) Doctor or clinician information about an individual